

24TH MAY, 2016
6 – 9PM (6PM FOR MEAL)
SHIP INN, SOUTHBANK
BRISBANE

MOVIE SEGMENT / PANEL / AUDIENCE DIALOGUE

QUEENSLAND

BEYOND PUNISHMENT

EMPOWERING VICTIMS' VOICES

Griffith University, School of Criminology and Criminal Justice and the Queensland Chapter of Restorative Practices International cordially invite you to participate in an evening event "Beyond Punishment: Empowering Victim's Voices"

Building on the success of our Youth Justice Forum in 2015, this workshop is designed to increase awareness of the importance of including the voice of victims in the justice process.

Julia Hennessy
New Zealand

Julia, Vice Chair of RPI, is the General Manager for one of the largest NGO social services providers in NZ. She was a member of the working group that developed the first restorative justice standards of practice in the UK for the Home Office in 2004

Peta Blood
NSW

Co-founder of RPI. Peta has applied restorative practices in a range of diverse settings including workplaces, communities, policing, corrections and schools for 20 years. An experienced practitioner, trainer and author, currently working with victims of crime, where she is focused on the application of trauma informed practice

Jonty Bush
QLD

Following the homicides of her sister and father, Jonty, aged 21, joined the Queensland Homicide Victim Support Group later becoming CEO. A former Young Australian of the Year current member of the Qld Sentencing Advisory Council, Bronty is a graduate of the Griffith School of Criminology and Criminal Justice Masters program.

Presented by:

Griffith
UNIVERSITY
School of Criminology and Criminal Justice

RestorativePractices
INTERNATIONAL

AWARD-WINNING MOVIE:

BEYOND PUNISHMENT

tells the story of Leola, Lisa and Sean, Erik and Stiva, Patrick and Manfred. The protagonists involved in three life-changing acts of violence have still not found peace - neither the victims nor the offenders. Years after judgements are made and sentences served, both sides are still searching...

RPI Members $20
Non-members $25

Canapés will be provided at 6.00 - 6.30pm and there will be a cash bar.

Numbers are limited, so please respond early.

RSVP: Click here
www.rpiqueensland.org

By: Monday, May 6

The evening will include:

- A clip of a new German documentary "Beyond Punishment"
- A panel of three key stakeholders in the justice system who will respond to the documentary
- A Community Café process to engage all participants in dialogue about the issues raised